BASIC PLAN

10 Good & Unique Positions

A guide for couples: closeness, comfort and confidence

For adults 18+ only. Personal use only.

Welcome

This guide is for consenting adults aged 18 and over. It is written to help couples explore closeness, communication and comfort together, one position at a time.

Every body is different. What feels wonderful for one couple may not suit another, and that is completely fine. Treat these pages as a menu, not a checklist: pick what appeals to you, skip what doesn't, and change anything that doesn't feel right.

Each position has a short how-to, a practical tip and three ratings, so you can choose by mood: relaxed, close, playful or energetic.

The most important ingredient is not in any position. It is the two of you, talking openly, going at your own pace and enjoying each other.

A note on health

This guide is general education and is not medical advice. If you have pain, health concerns or questions about contraception, please speak to a doctor.

The Golden Rules

1. Consent is everything
   An enthusiastic yes from both of you, every time. Either of you can pause or stop at any moment, without needing to explain.

2. Talk before, during and after
   Say what you like and ask how it feels. Silence is not a yes.

3. Comfort comes first
   Pain is a signal to stop or adjust. Use pillows, change the angle and take breaks.

4. Protect each other
   Condoms help protect against sexually transmitted infections. Talk about contraception together, and ask a doctor or clinic for personal advice.

5. Go slow and keep it clean
   Warm up with kisses and touch. Use lubricant if you need it (water-based is safe with condoms). Wash up afterwards.

6. Stay safe
   Avoid alcohol and drugs, check that furniture is stable, and never try anything that feels risky.

How to Use This Guide

Every position comes with three ratings from one to five dots.

Comfort
●●●○○
How easy and relaxing the position is to hold. More dots mean less effort.

Intimacy
●●●○○
How close you are, and how much eye contact and connection there is.

Energy
●●●○○
How much effort the position takes. One dot is calm, five is a workout.

Choose by mood

- Want closeness? Try Classic Missionary, Classic Spooning or the Mirror Side.
- Want to stay relaxed? Spooning and the Pillow Lift keep effort low.
- Want to share control? The Rider and Reverse Rider let the partner on top lead.
- Feeling adventurous? Try Standing Embrace or the Edge of the Bed.

1 Classic Missionary

Close, connected and unhurried.

One partner lies on their back with knees softly bent. The other lies on top, supporting their weight on forearms and knees. Your faces are close, so kissing and eye contact come naturally.

TIP Take your time settling in. Small changes in angle can change everything.

Comfort ●●●●● Intimacy ●●●●● Energy ●●○○○

2 The Pillow Lift

A small change with a big difference.

Lie on your back with a firm pillow or two tucked under your hips. Your partner kneels between your legs or leans in from above. The lifted angle feels different and can reduce strain on the lower back.

TIP Use a firm cushion. A soft pillow flattens quickly.

Comfort ●●●●○ Intimacy ●●●●○ Energy ●●○○○

3 The Rider

Sit tall, set the pace.

The partner underneath lies on their back. The other straddles their hips, facing them, with knees on the bed and hands resting on their chest. The partner on top controls the speed, depth and angle.

TIP Lean slightly forward or back to find the angle that feels best.

Comfort ●●●●○ Intimacy ●●●●○ Energy ●●●○○

4 The Reverse Rider

A new view and a new angle.

The partner on top sits astride their partner facing their feet, with hands on the bed or on their partner's legs for balance. It gives a completely different angle and sensation.

TIP Go slowly at first. The angle is different and needs a little adjusting.

Comfort ●●●○○ Intimacy ●●○○○ Energy ●●●○○

5 Classic Spooning

Curl up together.

Both partners lie on their sides facing the same direction, one curled behind the other like two spoons. The partner behind wraps an arm around the front partner and keeps their body close.

TIP Bend your knees slightly and tuck a pillow between them for comfort.

Comfort ●●●●● Intimacy ●●●●● Energy ●○○○○

6 The Mirror Side

Face to face on your sides.

Lie on your sides facing each other, with legs slightly interlaced. You can kiss, hold eye contact and hug all at once. Movements are small and effortless.

TIP Share one pillow so your faces stay close.

Comfort ●●●●● Intimacy ●●●●● Energy ●○○○○

7 Rear Comfort

The classic on hands and knees.

One partner kneels on hands and knees, with knees slightly apart. The other kneels behind them. Hands rest gently on hips or waist, and talking to each other is easy.

TIP Lower onto your forearms if your wrists get tired.

Comfort ●●●●○ Intimacy ●●●○○ Energy ●●●○○

8 Lotus Embrace

Wrapped around each other.

One partner sits cross-legged, and the other sits on their lap facing them, wrapping their legs around their waist. Arms hold each other close, with foreheads together.

TIP Sit on a cushion to lift your hips and keep your back straight.

Comfort ●●●●○ Intimacy ●●●●● Energy ●●○○○

9 Standing Embrace

Stand close and hold on.

Both partners stand facing each other with arms around each other. One partner lifts a foot onto a low stool or step to adjust for height and angle. Kiss and sway gently.

TIP Choose a stool that won't tip.

Comfort ●●●○○ Intimacy ●●●●● Energy ●●●○○

10 Edge of the Bed

The perfect height.

The partner on their back lies with their hips at the edge of the bed and feet resting on their partner's hips or on the floor. The partner standing or kneeling at the edge controls the angle.

TIP Place a pillow under the lower back for support.

Comfort ●●●●○ Intimacy ●●●●○ Energy ●●●○○

Tips for a Great Night

Set the mood
Dim lights, soft music, phones away and a warm room. Small things make a big difference.

Warm up first
Kissing, massage and slow touch are not a warm-up to the main event. They are the main event.

Keep water close
Stay hydrated, and keep a blanket nearby for when you want to rest and cuddle.

Laugh together
Positions don't always work the first time. A laugh and a change of angle is part of the fun.

Try one new thing
You don't need to try everything. Pick one new position a night and talk about what you liked.

Don't skip aftercare
Cuddle, talk and check in. How you end the night shapes how you feel about the next one.
